

MARCO WALKER

Marco Walker is an Austrian-American Artist who studied at Art Center, Los Angeles.

Walker's portfolio includes work with French Vogue, Harpers Bazaar & Self Service & most recently he shot & envisioned a campaign for Yves Saint Laurent, Rive Droite '22.

This year he has participated in Zona Maco sculpture park in Baja, Mexico and is a regular contributor to the Bombay Beach Biennale, on the Salton Sea, California.

PARADISE BLOWN

Walker, navigates the multifaceted realms of photography, collage, alternative print methods and immersive photographic installations. His newest body of work is an exploration of new technologies mixed with traditional processes and techniques.

Walker's compelling works delve into the exploration of escapism and paradise, presenting nature's allure in a unique blend of shape, form, and colour. With each piece, Walker emphasises our growing detachment from the natural world, reminding us of our forgotten symbiotic bond.

In a post pandemic world where climate change and species' extinction threaten our planet, Paradise Blown is an optimistic tribute to Nature and a poignant reminder of what is at stake.
